Responding to the SNAP crisis

SNAP benefits are in jeopardy for thousands of our neighbors.
Here are key resources you need to know.

Need help?

Find Food

If you are in need of food assistance, find a local food pantry or meal program by visiting FoodlinkNY.org/FindFood

SNAP changes

Look for notifications from your County DHS/DSS about any changes to your SNAP eligibility. If you have questions, call Foodlink's SNAP Line at 585.413.5091, or email SNAP@foodlinkNY.org

Check eligibility

TogetherNow developed a new screening tool to help SNAP recipients navigate changes to their eligibility. Visit My-WayFinder.org

Take action

Donate funds

A monetary donation to our Crisis Response Fund is the fastest and most efficient way to support the emergency food system and help us address the needs of our partners and neighbors.

Donate food

If you have food to donate, visit our Find Food page to look up a food pantry in your area that could use additional support, or visit our website to learn more about hosting a food drive.
